

God Loves us

The true reason for which we are on this earth is because God loves us. He wants to make himself known to us and share his love, so that we may live eternally in communion with him. The harmony that we see in the most beautiful sceneries, our creator wants to put this in us.

To live in happiness, with God and with others, that is the plan that he has for us, it is the promise that he made to Abraham and his descendants. Abraham understood that he was called the friend of God, Moses spoke to God face to face, like with a friend. King David had a love relationship with God that he would not break for anything in the world. "One day in your gates is better than one thousand elsewhere" Ps 84. God is the best, the best father, who wants each one of us to be his child. "This is my beloved son in whom I have put all my affection." Luke 3 :22 This relationship that God has with Jesus, he wants to share it with us.

So, you could say to me, if God loves me, why all these problems, why all these hardships, why all this hurt in my life and in the world?

Do not throw the highway sr

God Loves us

The true reason for which we are on this earth is because God loves us. He wants to make himself known to us and share his love, so that we may live eternally in communion with him. The harmony that we see in the most beautiful sceneries, our creator wants to put this in us.

To live in happiness, with God and with others, that is the plan that he has for us, it is the promise that he made to Abraham and his descendants. Abraham understood that he was called the friend of God, Moses spoke to God face to face, like with a friend. King David had a love relationship with God that he would not break for anything in the world. "One day in your gates is better than one thousand elsewhere" Ps 84. God is the best, the best father, who wants each one of us to be his child. "This is my beloved son in whom I have put all my affection." Luke 3 :22 This relationship that God has with Jesus, he wants to share it with us.

So, you could say to me, if God loves me, why all these problems, why all these hardships, why all this hurt in my life and in the world?

Do not throw the highway sr

God Loves us

The true reason for which we are on this earth is because God loves us. He wants to make himself known to us and share his love, so that we may live eternally in communion with him. The harmony that we see in the most beautiful sceneries, our creator wants to put this in us.

To live in happiness, with God and with others, that is the plan that he has for us, it is the promise that he made to Abraham and his descendants. Abraham understood that he was called the friend of God, Moses spoke to God face to face, like with a friend. King David had a love relationship with God that he would not break for anything in the world. "One day in your gates is better than one thousand elsewhere" Ps 84. God is the best, the best father, who wants each one of us to be his child. "This is my beloved son in whom I have put all my affection." Luke 3 :22 This relationship that God has with Jesus, he wants to share it with us.

So, you could say to me, if God loves me, why all these problems, why all these hardships, why all this hurt in my life and in the world?

Do not throw the highway sr

God Loves us

The true reason for which we are on this earth is because God loves us. He wants to make himself known to us and share his love, so that we may live eternally in communion with him. The harmony that we see in the most beautiful sceneries, our creator wants to put this in us.

To live in happiness, with God and with others, that is the plan that he has for us, it is the promise that he made to Abraham and his descendants. Abraham understood that he was called the friend of God, Moses spoke to God face to face, like with a friend. King David had a love relationship with God that he would not break for anything in the world. "One day in your gates is better than one thousand elsewhere" Ps 84. God is the best, the best father, who wants each one of us to be his child. "This is my beloved son in whom I have put all my affection." Luke 3 :22 This relationship that God has with Jesus, he wants to share it with us.

So, you could say to me, if God loves me, why all these problems, why all these hardships, why all this hurt in my life and in the world?

Do not throw the highway sr

Jesus came to share the love of God on this earth, and in answer to this love, he has been rejected, despised, crucified... In fact, there is like a barrier between God and us. God is holy, three times holy, he is pure, he is love and we are sinners. He is good and we are bad. We are defiled by our acts, by our words and our thoughts. It is all this evil that stops us from entering in a relations-hip with our God.

This wall, that we can't destroy, God in his love will destroy it himself. He sent Jesus, on the earth, his beloved spiritual son, to bring us his love, and in a supreme love act to die on the cross, to offer his body and his blood in sacrifice for our sins.

By dying on a cross, Jesus has reconciled us with God, the communion is reestablished, we can receive it in our heart, for he is resurrected, we can then experiment his peace, his love and his joy with the promise of eternal life. In receiving Jesus in our heart, we become a child of God, he changes our life and makes us able to love, to forgive and to love other people. "He who can't love has not known God, for God is love. The love of God has been manifested to us in that God sent his only son in the world, so that we may live by him." 1 John 4:8 May be you have a religion, but do you know God? Does he live in you? Does he speak to you? Is your heart filled with his love? Be honest...

Do you want to know God, do you want to know his love, his peace, his joy, his forgiveness, his healing? Come and lay down your burdens and your sins at his feet and ask Jesus to come in your heart. If you agree do this simple prayer with me: Lord Jesus, I accept that I am a sinner, that I don't deserve to go to paradise. I believe that on the cross you have been punished in my place. I believe that my sins have been forgiven and my sickness healed. I believe that you are ressurected, I repent of my sins and I ask you to come into my heart, I want to start a new life with you. Amen

Jesus came to share the love of God on this earth, and in answer to this love, he has been rejected, despised, crucified... In fact, there is like a barrier between God and us. God is holy, three times holy, he is pure, he is love and we are sinners. He is good and we are bad. We are defiled by our acts, by our words and our thoughts. It is all this evil that stops us from entering in a relations-hip with our God.

This wall, that we can't destroy, God in his love will destroy it himself. He sent Jesus, on the earth, his beloved spiritual son, to bring us his love, and in a supreme love act to die on the cross, to offer his body and his blood in sacrifice for our sins.

By dying on a cross, Jesus has reconciled us with God, the communion is reestablished, we can receive it in our heart, for he is resurrected, we can then experiment his peace, his love and his joy with the promise of eternal life. In receiving Jesus in our heart, we become a child of God, he changes our life and makes us able to love, to forgive and to love other people. "He who can't love has not known God, for God is love. The love of God has been manifested to us in that God sent his only son in the world, so that we may live by him." 1 John 4:8 May be you have a religion, but do you know God? Does he live in you? Does he speak to you? Is your heart filled with his love? Be honest...

Do you want to know God, do you want to know his love, his peace, his joy, his forgiveness, his healing? Come and lay down your burdens and your sins at his feet and ask Jesus to come in your heart. If you agree do this simple prayer with me: Lord Jesus, I accept that I am a sinner, that I don't deserve to go to paradise. I believe that on the cross you have been punished in my place. I believe that my sins have been forgiven and my sickness healed. I believe that you are ressurected, I repent of my sins and I ask you to come into my heart, I want to start a new life with you. Amen

Jesus came to share the love of God on this earth, and in answer to this love, he has been rejected, despised, crucified... In fact, there is like a barrier between God and us. God is holy, three times holy, he is pure, he is love and we are sinners. He is good and we are bad. We are defiled by our acts, by our words and our thoughts. It is all this evil that stops us from entering in a relations-hip with our God.

This wall, that we can't destroy, God in his love will destroy it himself. He sent Jesus, on the earth, his beloved spiritual son, to bring us his love, and in a supreme love act to die on the cross, to offer his body and his blood in sacrifice for our sins.

By dying on a cross, Jesus has reconciled us with God, the communion is reestablished, we can receive it in our heart, for he is resurrected, we can then experiment his peace, his love and his joy with the promise of eternal life. In receiving Jesus in our heart, we become a child of God, he changes our life and makes us able to love, to forgive and to love other people. "He who can't love has not known God, for God is love. The love of God has been manifested to us in that God sent his only son in the world, so that we may live by him." 1 John 4:8 May be you have a religion, but do you know God? Does he live in you? Does he speak to you? Is your heart filled with his love? Be honest...

Do you want to know God, do you want to know his love, his peace, his joy, his forgiveness, his healing? Come and lay down your burdens and your sins at his feet and ask Jesus to come in your heart. If you agree do this simple prayer with me: Lord Jesus, I accept that I am a sinner, that I don't deserve to go to paradise. I believe that on the cross you have been punished in my place. I believe that my sins have been forgiven and my sickness healed. I believe that you are ressurected, I repent of my sins and I ask you to come into my heart, I want to start a new life with you. Amen

Jesus came to share the love of God on this earth, and in answer to this love, he has been rejected, despised, crucified... In fact, there is like a barrier between God and us. God is holy, three times holy, he is pure, he is love and we are sinners. He is good and we are bad. We are defiled by our acts, by our words and our thoughts. It is all this evil that stops us from entering in a relations-hip with our God.

This wall, that we can't destroy, God in his love will destroy it himself. He sent Jesus, on the earth, his beloved spiritual son, to bring us his love, and in a supreme love act to die on the cross, to offer his body and his blood in sacrifice for our sins.

By dying on a cross, Jesus has reconciled us with God, the communion is reestablished, we can receive it in our heart, for he is resurrected, we can then experiment his peace, his love and his joy with the promise of eternal life. In receiving Jesus in our heart, we become a child of God, he changes our life and makes us able to love, to forgive and to love other people. "He who can't love has not known God, for God is love. The love of God has been manifested to us in that God sent his only son in the world, so that we may live by him." 1 John 4:8 May be you have a religion, but do you know God? Does he live in you? Does he speak to you? Is your heart filled with his love? Be honest...

Do you want to know God, do you want to know his love, his peace, his joy, his forgiveness, his healing? Come and lay down your burdens and your sins at his feet and ask Jesus to come in your heart. If you agree do this simple prayer with me: Lord Jesus, I accept that I am a sinner, that I don't deserve to go to paradise. I believe that on the cross you have been punished in my place. I believe that my sins have been forgiven and my sickness healed. I believe that you are ressurected, I repent of my sins and I ask you to come into my heart, I want to start a new life with you. Amen

